1. FIRM OVERVIEW – PROFESSIONAL TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE, SIZE OF FIRM, AND CAPACITY FOR TIMELY COMPLETION OF NEWLY ASSIGNED WORK

LeBlanc Fantaci Villio, LLC (f/k/a LeBlanc Butler, LLC and LeBlanc Partners, LLC) ("the Firm") has a well-established history of serving as independent legal counsel to numerous local governments and public entities on a multitude of issues, as well as some of the largest private companies in the region. Each of the principal attorneys who will provide services under this contract, if awarded, have more than 20 years of experience as licensed attorneys in the State of Louisiana.

The attorneys responsible for servicing this contract are experienced trial practitioners and legal advisors, whose professional profiles are included under Tab A, together with an associate attorney whose professional profile is also included under Tab A.

All attorneys who will be principally responsible for servicing this contract have extensive experience as legal practitioners in the State of Louisiana, and all are eligible to practice in all State and Federal courts throughout Louisiana. Our attorneys have appeared before the Louisiana Supreme Court, the Louisiana Court of Appeals for the 1st, 3rd, 4th, and 5th Circuits, all Louisiana District Courts in the Greater New Orleans area, including the 24th Judicial District Court for the Parish of Jefferson, and multiple city and parish courts. Our attorneys have also appeared before the Federal 5th Circuit Court of Appeal and the Federal Eastern, Middle, and Western Districts of Louisiana.

In specific response to the SOQ, our attorneys have extensive experience providing independent legal counsel to numerous local government entities, including the Parish of Jefferson, the City of Kenner, the City of New Orleans, the City of Harahan, the Parish of St. John the Baptist, the Parish of Plaquemines, the Louis Armstrong New Orleans International Airport, and the New Orleans Office of the Inspector General.

Our attorneys are well-versed in all current electronic legal research methods. Additionally, our firm has sufficient depth of personnel that workload, absences, or illness will not interfere with the provision of services.

The Firm currently represents Jefferson Parish in the following matters:

1. Telecommunications Franchise Ordinances – on-call advice regarding the Parish's wireless and wireline franchise ordinances and the Parish's cell tower ordinance and reviewing existing wireline franchise ordinance for potential amendment.

2. Jefferson Parish, Jefferson Parish Hospital Service District No. 1 and Jefferson Parish Hospital Service District No. 2 v. Amerisource Drug Corporation, et al (Case 1:18-op-45885, Northern District of Ohio - opioid litigation).
3. Front End Documents – review and rewrite of front end contractual documents.
4. 911 Carrier Franchise – review and investigation of remittance of the 911 service charge to the Jefferson Parish Communication District, related statutes and ordinances, to ensure full and timely remittance by all carriers and possible litigation for the failure of carriers to fulfill their obligation to bill, collect, report and remit.
5. Gopal Inc. v. Jefferson Parish, No. 797-485, 24th JDC, Div. “L” – lawsuit involving sewerage backups at the Best Western.
6. AMKO Fence, et al. v. Parish of Jefferson, et al., No. 801-750, 24th JDC, Div. “A” – lawsuit involving subcontractor payment dispute regarding fencing work at the Rivarde Detention Center.
7. Ronald Johnson v. River Birch, LLC, et al., No. 810-979, 24th JDC, Div. “F” – personal injury lawsuit involving overturned dumpster travelling to landfill.
8. Bridgett Miller v. Jefferson Parish, et al, No. 817-819, 24th JDC, Div. “G” – personal injury lawsuit arising out of a motor vehicle accident.
9. Myra and Prince Andrews v. Consolidated Road District A, et al, No. 841-702, Div. “K” – personal injury/trip and fall.
10. Glass v. Jefferson Parish, et al, No. 842-222, Div. “I” – personal injury/JPCC.

ATTORNEY PROFILES (See also Tab A)

Deborah A. Villio

Ms. Villio is an owner/member of the firm.

In her more than 34-year career as an attorney, she has tried more than 200 jury trials. A life-long resident of Jefferson Parish, she has extensive experience in both civil litigation and as an Assistant District Attorney in Jefferson, Orleans and St. Tammany Parishes. She has a wide ranging practice including public sector liability, zoning and land use, civil defense, premises liability, commercial transactions, expropriations, and medical malpractice. Ms. Villio represents numerous local governmental entities, including the Parish of Jefferson, the City of Kenner, Mayor Michael J. Glaser, Kenner Police Chief Keith Conley, Former Kenner Police Chief Michael Glaser, the City of New Orleans, former Kenner Police Chief Steve Caraway, the City of Harahan and former Harahan Police Chief Tim Walker.

Additionally, Ms. Villio has significant administrative and regulatory expertise because of her tenure as the Director of Inspection and Code Enforcement in Jefferson Parish. In that position she had supervisory responsibility for the issuance of permits for all commercial and residential structures, as well as enforcement of zoning and use regulations.

Prior to her election as Louisiana State Representative in August 2019, Ms. Villio was active as a leader on a variety of community Boards, including the Jefferson Parish Personnel Board and the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce PAC. Also, she served on the Board of the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce, as well as the Kenner Charter Committee and the Kenner Code Enforcement Advisory Board. Previously she served on the Advisory Board of Archbishop Chapelle High School, the Board of Children's Bureau, the Jefferson EDGE 2020 Fat City Redevelopment Committee, and the Jefferson Parish Drug Court Advisory Board.

In 2001 Ms. Villio was honored by the Bureau of Governmental Research with its Excellence in Government Award. In 2002 she was recognized by CityBusiness as one of its "Women of the Year." She was also honored with CityBusiness' Leadership in Law 2012 nomination for her outstanding professional accomplishments and community involvement.

Michael L. Fantaci

Mr. Fantaci is an owner/member of the firm.

His practice includes extensive civil litigation and commercial transaction experience. Mr. Fantaci has represented numerous local governmental entities, including the Parish of Jefferson, the New Orleans Office of Inspector General, the City of New Orleans, the New Orleans Aviation Board/Louis Armstrong International Airport, the Housing Authority of New Orleans, the New Orleans Redevelopment Authority, and the City of Kenner. Mr. Fantaci's representation of governmental entities covers a wide variety of issues, such as defending civil service appeals, employment discrimination claims, and premises liability cases, as well as negotiating and preparing franchise agreements, cooperative endeavor agreements, and operating policies and procedures.

Mr. Fantaci also represents and advises business owners with regard to corporate structure, corporate governance, choice of business entities, property rights, and contractual disputes. Additionally, Mr. Fantaci specializes in the representation of management regarding employment law and employment discrimination issues. Mr. Fantaci handles litigation cases in state and federal courts and before governmental agencies.

In addition to his litigation experience, a significant aspect of Mr. Fantaci's practice is providing "on call" advice and opinions to clients who request legal counsel on a daily basis. Mr. Fantaci has served as de facto "in house" counsel to numerous clients. Mr. Fantaci also regularly assists clients with formulating plans to avoid claims, charges, and lawsuits, including training supervisors, preparing internal policies, and improving communications with employees.

Mr. Fantaci has served as a member of the Jefferson Parish Personnel Board since 2016, as well as a member of the 2021 Jefferson Parish Charter Advisory Board, and previously served as a member of the 2012-2013 Jefferson Parish Charter Advisory Board.

2. PAST PERFORMANCE ON JEFFERSON PARISH CONTRACTS

The Firm has an established track record of successfully representing Jefferson Parish in various legal matters, including but not limited to automobile liability claims, premises liability claims, Americans with Disabilities Act claims, and zoning challenges. Additionally, the Firm successfully prosecuted and obtained a settlement worth approximately $9 million from Cox Communications in favor of the Parish. Moreover, our Firm was successful in obtaining the voluntary dismissal of all claims against Jefferson Parish by the plaintiff in the Wade Stewart v. Parish of Jefferson lawsuit, as well as the voluntary dismissal of all claims against Jefferson Parish by the plaintiffs in the Raymond Johnson, et al v. Parish of Jefferson lawsuit.

In addition to our on-going representation of Jefferson Parish in litigation matters, our Firm assisted the Parish in drafting and adopting the Parish's first ordinance specifically governing the installation and operation of wireless antennas and related equipment in the public rights-of-way. Chapter 35.6 of the Code of Ordinances was adopted in August 2019. The Small Wireless Facilities Franchise Ordinance provides the framework for wireless service and infrastructure providers to obtain franchises and construction permits to use the public rights-of-way to provide wireless services to the residents of Jefferson Parish. It includes provisions setting franchise and permit fees, establishing application review procedures, and addressing aesthetic concerns. Our Firm continues to provide the Parish with on-call advice regarding a wide variety of issues related to telecommunications franchising and cell tower leases. Most recently, our Firm was also retained to assist the Parish with a review of its wireline telecommunications franchise ordinance set forth in Chapter 35.5 of the Code of Ordinances.

Additionally, the Firm represented Jefferson Parish in an Americans With Disabilities Act Complaint brought in Federal Court achieving a modification of a settlement agreement entered into by other counsel for the Parish reducing that settlement agreement from $8 million in estimated costs to $1.8 million (with $1.3 million to be funded by grants) while providing more comprehensive improvements for access throughout the entire Park than was contemplated under the $8 million original agreement.

3. LOCATION OF PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The Firm is conveniently located in Jefferson Parish at 3421 No. Causeway Blvd., Suite 201, in Metairie, Louisiana.

4. ADVERSARIAL LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In the interest of full disclosure, when the Firm was under completely different ownership in 2013 and operated as LeBlanc Butler, LLC, it had one adversarial legal proceeding against the Parish regarding the denial of a fence variance. The matter was entitled Defraites v. Board of Zoning and Adjustments, No. 730-515 "L" of the 24th Judicial District Court. The matter was amicably resolved after an ordinance amendment.

Following are some examples of prior work performed by members of the firm involving the public sector representation:

Jefferson Parish

The FIRM has represented Jefferson Parish in telecommunications and energy matters and is currently advising Jefferson Parish regarding wireless franchise agreements. In The Parish of Jefferson v. Cox Communications Louisiana, LLC, No. 02-3344, U.S.D.C., E.D.La., Sec. "R," we represented Jefferson Parish in the federal Eastern District of Louisiana in a dispute arising out of franchise fees owed by Cox Communications for cable and related services. We also negotiated and prepared the extended and amended franchise agreement between the Parish and Cox and prepared several accompanying Parish ordinances. Our representation of Jefferson Parish in this matter involved extensive analysis of FCC rules and regulations, lobbying of the FCC and several members of Louisiana's Congressional delegation regarding proposed FCC rulemaking, and appearing before the Louisiana Public Service Commission.

The FIRM was also retained by Jefferson Parish and the City of Gretna to negotiate and prepare cell site leases on public property owned by Jefferson Parish and to prepare the accompanying Parish ordinances. This work included the preparation of the request for proposals and bid specifications for the leases of Parish property to install wireless communication facilities.

The FIRM also represented Jefferson Parish's interests in connection with tax sales of properties encumbered by Parish liens.

Additionally, the FIRM has defended Jefferson Parish and has achieved successful results in various litigation matters in the Parish, State and Federal Courts, including but not limited to: Angela Lee v. Mark Joseph Colomb, et al, No. 763-532, 24th Judicial District Court; Catheryn Babin v. Parish of Jefferson, No. 16-2954, USDC EDLA; Felix Ralph Barbara v. Parish of Jefferson, et al, No. 760-866, 24th Judicial District Court; Jean Brown v. Parish of Jefferson, et al, No. 762-767, 24th Judicial District Court; Joshua Robin v. Parish of Jefferson and the Jefferson Parish Animal Shelter, No. 161-632, 1st Parish Court; Henry Krummel v. Consolidated Drainage District No. 2, et al, No. 777-861, 24th Judicial District Court; Yadi Mark v. Parish of Jefferson and the Jefferson Parish Performing Arts Center, No. 17-9589, USDC EDLA; Daniel Coulon et al v. Parish of Jefferson, No. 791-745 "F", 24th Judicial District Court; Shirley Barrett v. Parish of Jefferson, et al, No. 786-187 "D", 24th Judicial District Court; Isaac Williams, et al v. Parish of Jefferson, No. 18-9296, United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana; Thad Tatum v. Parish of Jefferson, No. 15-06948, United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana; Nancy Ray v. Jefferson Parish, No. 803-488, 24th Judicial District Court; Thomas Chaze v. Jefferson Parish, et al, No. 803-930, 24th Judicial District Court; Lynette Theodore v. Timothy Whatley, et al, No. 806-575, 24th Judicial District Court; Butler and Naquin v. Jefferson Parish, No. 22-00254, United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana; Kennedy v. Jefferson Parish, No. 781-754, 24th Judicial District Court for the Parish of Jefferson; Keys and Chamberlain v. Jefferson Parish, No. 827-951, 24th Judicial District Court for the Parish of Jefferson; Gillan v. Jefferson Parish, No. 801-879, 24th Judicial District Court for the Parish of Jefferson; Pham v. Jefferson Parish, No. 817-723, 24th Judicial District Court for the Parish of Jefferson; Lachney v. Parish of Jefferson, No. 823-269, 24th Judicial District Court for the Parish of Jefferson.

Our Firm was successful in obtaining the voluntary dismissal of all claims against Jefferson Parish by the plaintiff in Wade Stewart v. Parish of Jefferson, No. 790-542, 24th JDC, Div. "J", litigation involving a motor vehicle accident caused by a defective utility pole in the DOTD ROW. Likewise, our FIRM was successful in obtaining the voluntary dismissal of all claims against Jefferson Parish by the plaintiffs in the Johnson v. Jefferson Parish, et al litigation, No. 805-652, 24th JDC "D", involving a property damage claim resulting from excessive vibrations in the 2019 road work performed at W. Esplanade Avenue. Similarly, we obtained dismissals of the following matters: Racetrac Petroleum, Inc. and Marrero Land and Improvement Association, Ltd., v. Parish of Jefferson, No. 758-313, 24th Judicial District Court; Melancon and Perrilloux v. Jefferson Parish, No. 772-776, 24th Judicial District Court

The Firm currently represents Jefferson Parish in the following matters:

1. Telecommunications Franchise Ordinances – on-call advice regarding the Parish's wireless and wireline franchise ordinances and the Parish's cell tower ordinance and reviewing existing wireline franchise ordinance for potential amendment.
2. Jefferson Parish, Jefferson Parish Hospital Service District No. 1 and Jefferson Parish Hospital Service District No. 2 v. Amerisource Drug Corporation, et al (Case 1:18-op-45885, Northern District of Ohio - opioid litigation).
3. Front End Documents – review and rewrite of front end contractual documents.
4. 911 Carrier Franchise – review and investigation of remittance of the 911 service charge to the Jefferson Parish Communication District, related statutes and ordinances, to ensure full and timely remittance by all carriers and possible litigation for the failure of carriers to fulfill their obligation to bill, collect, report and remit.
5. Gopal Inc. v. Jefferson Parish, No. 797-485, 24th JDC, Div. "L" – lawsuit involving sewerage backups at the Best Western.
6. AMKO Fence, et al. v. Parish of Jefferson, et al., No. 801-750, 24th JDC, Div. "A" – lawsuit involving subcontractor payment dispute regarding fencing work at the Rivarde Detention Center.
7. Ronald Johnson v. River Birch, LLC, et al., No. 810-979, 24th JDC, Div. "F" – personal injury lawsuit involving overturned dumpster travelling to landfill. We obtained a dismissal on a grant of summary judgment and Plaintiff Johnson has appealed.

8. Landa Boyd and Jonathan Champagne v. Jefferson Parish, et al, No. 818-489 "G" – property damage and related claims resulting from the rebuilding of Westwood Drive in Marrero.
9. Bridgett Miller v. Jefferson Parish, et al, No. 817-819, 24th JDC, Div. "G" – personal injury lawsuit arising out of a motor vehicle accident.
10. Sonia Lachney, et al v. Parish of Jefferson, No. 823-269, 24th JDC, Div. "K" – property damage claim/sewer backups.
11. Myra and Prince Andrews v. Consolidated Road District A, et al, No. 841-702, Div. "K" – personal injury/trip and fall.
12. Glass v. Jefferson Parish, et al, No. 842-222, Div. "I" – personal injury/JPCC.

City of Kenner and Kenner Police Department

The FIRM represents the City of Kenner in multiple premises and other liability matters, as well as defense of police liability cases. We have successfully defended the City of Kenner against tort claims involving damage caused by trees and other public property. We have also successfully defended the City of Kenner and the Kenner Police Department against numerous civil rights lawsuits, including 42 USC § 1983, negligence, wrongful death, false arrest, excessive force, and deliberate indifference claims. In recent years, we have been successful in having a § 1983 action for negligence and wrongful death dismissed on summary judgment, and we were successful at trial in obtaining zero liability judgments for the City of Kenner and the Kenner Police Department in two personal injury cases, as well as obtained two (2) zero verdicts in favor of the City and its Police Department in two police pursuits that ended in personal injury and/or death to third parties.

In addition, we have successfully defended the City against wide-ranging allegations of wrongdoing and harassment brought by property owners. The case resulted in dismissal of Section 1983 civil rights claims in federal court and an award of attorney fees in favor of the City. Additionally, in a companion state court action, we were successful in having the plaintiff's claims of improper "taking" dismissed as well as a dismissal of allegations of unconstitutional denial of due process.

City of Harahan and Harahan Police Department

The Firm has represented the City of Harahan and the Harahan Police Department in defense against multiple civil rights lawsuits, including 42 USC § 1983, negligence, false arrest, excessive force, unlawful discharge, due process, and whistleblower claims, in addition to automobile liability claims. We were successful in having a § 1983 action for unlawful search and seizure dismissed on summary judgment.

New Orleans Aviation Board

The Firm has represented the New Orleans Aviation Board and the Louis Armstrong International Airport on a wide variety of regulatory, employment-related and security matters. Our representation has involved extensive analysis of municipal codes and ordinances for the City of New Orleans, the Parish of Jefferson, and the City of Kenner, TSA Security Guidelines as well the Rules of the Civil Service Commission of the City of New Orleans.

Following Hurricane Katrina, we successfully represented NOAB/LANOIA in defense of 36 civil service appeals before both the Civil Service Commission and the 4th Circuit Court of Appeal in In the Matter of Joe Banks, et al. v. the New Orleans Aviation Board. We also successfully represented NOAB/LANOIA in federal court in defense of multiple discrimination claims in Larry A. Hughes v. Louis Armstrong Airport.

In 2007, we participated in the preparation of Requests for Proposals for On-Demand Taxi Service. We prepared the proposed Airport On-Demand Taxicab Service Concession Agreement with the successful bidder. Our firm has also prepared proposed revisions to the Airport's rules and regulations for ground transportation and skycaps, and we prepared a proposed Cooperative Endeavor Agreement between the NOAB and Kenner City Police regarding patrol of the Airport Access Road.

In 2012, the FIRM represented the NOAB/LANOIA in the negotiation of multiple contracts with Airport service providers and tenants.

The FIRM was also engaged to assist and represent NOAB/LANOIA with respect to the CONRAC construction project, contractor compliance issues, the North Terminal Access Road project, the proposed new pumping station, and a public bid challenge by Construction Diva

City of New Orleans

Our FIRM successfully defended the Mayor and City of New Orleans against efforts to enjoin the construction of the new VA hospital project, as well defended the City of New Orleans against multiple challenges to the traffic camera ordinance.

In addition, the FIRM represented the City of New Orleans in connection with the Gentilly Landfill class action lawsuit and settlement process.

New Orleans Office of Inspector General

Mr. Fantaci represented the New Orleans Office of Inspector General ("OIG") on employment-related matters. In addition to providing "on-call" advice, he successfully represented the OIG in defense of several Civil Service appeals by former employees. He was also successful in obtaining the denial of several former employees' whistleblower and racial discrimination Civil Service appeals.

Orleans Parish Criminal Sheriff's Office

The FIRM has defended the Orleans Parish Criminal Sheriff's Office ("OPCSO") in litigation surrounding the FEMA-funded, $75 million construction of the new kitchen/warehouse plant. The matter is entitled Woodward v. Gusman, et al, and involved representing the OPCSO before both the Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans and the Louisiana 4th Circuit Court of Appeal. In this litigation, a multitude of claims were made by and between the general contractor and the architect. As part of our representation, we handled extensive negotiations involving more than 75 change orders requiring numerous interviews with architects, contractors, engineers and manufacturers.

New Orleans Redevelopment Authority

The FIRM represented the New Orleans Redevelopment Authority ("NORA"), which included representation of NORA in the prosecution of its claims against OC Haley, LLC, CDC No. 2013-48, in connection with the planned construction of a $2 million housing development project. In that matter, the FIRM obtained rescission and dissolution of a credit sale, thereby recovering the real property which was the subject of the breached development agreement. The FIRM also provided general legal advice to NORA, particularly on employment matters.

Housing Authority of New Orleans

The FIRM represented the Housing Authority of New Orleans ("HANO") in multiple complex construction lawsuits arising out of the redevelopment of the Guste III and Florida housing projects. In connection with this litigation, we successfully defended HANO against a contractor's attempt to compel payments via a writ of mandamus.

St. John the Baptist Parish Sheriff's Office

The FIRM represented St. John the Baptist Parish Sheriff Michael Tregre in a Sec. 1983 action brought against him by his former Chief Administrative Officer Tregg Wilson in the matter Wilson v. Tregre, No. 13-05612, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana. We were successful in having that lawsuit dismissed via summary judgment, and the dismissal was affirmed on appeal and costs assessed against the plaintiff.

H. Past performance by person or Firm on Parish contracts. Please attach additional pages if necessary.

See attached Proposal Submission, subparts 2 and 6.

I. Adversarial legal proceedings between the Parish and the person or Firm performing professional services, in which the Parish prevailed, and excluding those instances or cases where the person or Firm was added as an indispensable party, or where the person or Firm participated in or assisted the public entity in prosecution of its claim. In the event that the person or Firm fails to provide accurate and detailed information regarding legal proceedings with the Parish, including the absence of legal proceedings, the person or firm shall be deemed unresponsive with regard to this category, and zero (0) points shall be awarded. Please attach additional pages if necessary.

In the interest of full disclosure, the Firm (when formerly known as LeBlanc Butler, LLC, and under completely different ownership) had one adversarial legal proceeding against the Parish regarding a fence variance request. The proceeding was filed in 2013 and entitled Defraites v. Board of Zoning & Adjustments, No. 730-515 "L", 24th JDC. The matter was ultimately amicably resolved by an ordinance amendment.
