LOUISIANA STATE BOARD of SOCIAL WORK EXAMINERS

The Louisiana State Board of Social Work Examiners approved your application for Registered Social Worker (RSW). The RSW credential entitles you to all rights, privileges and responsibilities prescribed by Louisiana Revised Statutes 37:2701-2724 and the Rules, Standards and Procedures.

Your identification card below indicates your license number and the expiration date. Renewal is required annually by August 31st. Completion of the renewal is the sole responsibility of the licensee. Your Continuing Education requirements are listed in your current renewal workflow under the Continuing Education section. This includes the number of CEUs you are required to obtain and additional requirements for your renewal.

The rules mandate you to use the designation RSW after your name on all professional correspondence. These initials should immediately follow your name and/or the indication of your educational attainment if it is used after your name. The following is given as an example: Jane Doe, BSW, RSW. It is requested that RSW precede any other initials designating certification or accreditation by other organizations since this is the legal designation of your eligibility to practice social work in the State of Louisiana. The Louisiana Social Work Practice Act and the Rules, Standards and Procedures, for which all Louisiana social workers are held accountable are located on the board's website at www.labswe.org.

Toddler CLASS® Observation Training Certificate of Completion*

This certifies that Trenice Knighton completed the 14-hour Toddler CLASS® Observation Training and has earned 1.4 continuing education units (CEUs). During this 2-day training, participants gained in-depth knowledge of the Classroom Assessment Scoring System® (CLASS) measure and how to accurately observe and code classrooms.

Topics covered

- An overview of the CLASS measure and its uses
- A thorough review of the CLASS domains and CLASS dimensions
- Evidence supporting the CLASS measure
- Explicit instruction and guided practice coding authentic classroom videos
- Conducting live observations
- Reliability testing and certification

The participant may now take the CLASS Reliability Test. Successful completion of this test is required to become a Certified CLASS Observer.

Trainer: Lysa Nguyen

Date: August 13, 2020

* This certificate of completion does not entitle the participant to conduct classroom observations using the CLASS measure.

THANK YOU FOR ATTENDING

Dear Trenice,

Thank you for attending An Overview of the Paycheck Protection Program and Economic Injury Disaster Loan Opportunities for Child Care Centers. We hope you found the information helpful. The webinar recording and resources will be available on the Early Childhood Training and Technical Assistance System (ECTTAS) website. The Early Care and Education Providers: Taking Advantage of the New Small Business Administration Loan and Grant Programs page has recordings for both the center and family child care webinars along with additional resources to help with applications for the Economic Injury Disaster Loan Program (EIDL) and Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) opportunities.

From this webpage, you can also link to our partners for further information: First Children's Finance, Tom Copeland, and All Our Kin.

A certificate of attendance is located at the bottom of this email.

Observation with Purpose: Observation and Assessment

Observation is important to understand a child and to assess and enhance learning and development. Observations take many forms, both formal and informal. This module explains the use of observation within teaching, examines how observation enhances interactions, identifies best practices for observing an individual child or group of children, and introduces a variety of observation tools and methods that are commonly used in early childhood programs.

Click2Science: Minds-On Learning - Reflecting and Processing in STEM

Out-of-school time staff build programs with engaging activities for youth. However, they may miss an important element in the STEM inquiry experience: the process of reflecting on STEM activities to make a more meaningful learning experience. This module contains examples of facilitators' language and several STEM experiences to try. This is one of 20 STEM facilitation skills that, when woven together, create a rich learning environment allowing STEM to click for children.

Observation with Purpose: Professional Collaborations

Early childhood education (ECE) professionals benefit from coordinated collaborations with a wide range of early learning professionals, specialists, and programs (e.g. education, social services, health). Through collaborations, ECE professionals gain knowledge and information to support children and families. This module focuses on how professional collaborations strengthen and inform the observation and assessment process in the early learning setting.

Resilient Caregivers: 'Bouncing Back' from Stress

Feeling stressed at work? Learn about how to deal with and "bounce back" from stress. Bouncing back is sometimes called resiliency. Everyone needs to find ways to bounce back after experiencing stress. This is very important with the demanding job of caring for children every day. Learn more about stress and resiliency, and identify your own strengths and ability to deal with or avoid stress.

Safe Sleep Practices for Caregivers: Reduce the Risk of SUID

Providing high quality sleep environments and understanding Sudden Unexpected Infant Deaths (SUID) are an essential part of a child care provider's job. There are about 4,000 sudden and unexpected deaths (SUID) in the United States each year. More than half of these deaths are caused by a commonly know type of SUID called SIDS or Sudden Infant Death Syndrome. This lesson focuses on defining SUID and identifying behaviors that affect and reduce the risk of sleep-related SUID.

Prevent Expulsion and Suspension: Effective Practices and Promising Directions

When children are expelled or suspended from schools and care programs, their system of support and learning is drastically reduced, and in some instances, halted. Non-inclusionary discipline practices such as expulsion and suspension deprive children of valuable education and care opportunities. This module takes a comprehensive look at the factors that contribute to the use of expulsion and suspension. Furthermore, it emphasizes alternative approaches and multifaceted best practices that show promise in both reducing and eliminating expulsion and suspension.
